

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

LOUIS BERRY

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. CU - 4923

Decision No. CU 1375

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Cuba, under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, was presented by LOUIS BERRY in the amount of $25,800.00, and is based upon the asserted ownership and loss of his interest in bonds and accrual certificates issued by the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba. Claimant has been a national of the United States since his naturalization on March 11, 1929.

Under Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 [78 Stat. 1110 (1964), 22 U.S.C. §§1643-1643k (1964), as amended, 79 Stat. 988 (1965)], the Commission is given jurisdiction over claims of nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba. Section 503(a) of the Act provides that the Commission shall receive and determine in accordance with applicable substantive law, including international law, the amount and validity of claims by nationals of the United States against the Government of Cuba arising since January 1, 1959 for losses resulting from the nationalization, expropriation, intervention or other taking of, or special measures directed against, property including any rights or interests therein owned wholly or partially, directly or indirectly at the time by nationals of the United States.

Section 502(3) of the Act provides:

The term 'property' means any property, right, or interest including any leasehold interest, and debts owed by the Government of Cuba or by enterprises which have been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba and debts which are a charge on property which has been nationalized, expropriated, intervened, or taken by the Government of Cuba.

On the basis of the evidence of record, the Commission finds that claimant is, and since prior to October 13, 1960, has been the owner of four bonds in the original face amount of 5,000 pesos, issued by the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba, and known as "3% Cumulative Income Debentures, due October 1, 2001", issued under an Indenture of February 1, 1953, with the United States Trust Company of New York as Trustee. The bonds in question are Nos. RV 576, 577, 578, and 579.

The Commission further finds that claimant is, and since prior to October 13, 1960, has been the owner of 2 Accrual Certificates, each in the face amount of 2,900 pesos, issued by the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba, pursuant to a corporate "Recapitalization Plan", effective February 11, 1953. The Accrual Certificates in question are Nos. NYR 709 and 710.

Consolidated Railroads of Cuba (Ferrocarriles Consolidados de Cuba), was a Cuban corporation. The Consolidated Railroads of Cuba thus would not qualify as a national of the United States under Section 502(1)(B) of the Act which defines the term "national of the United States" as including "(B) a corporation or other legal entity which is organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, if natural persons who are citizens of the United States own, directly or indirectly, 50 per centum or more of the outstanding capital stock or other beneficial interest of such corporation or entity."

The corporate "Recapitalization Plan" of the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba, adopted by vote of the stockholders of that company of February 11, 1953, provided for the deposit of all shares of 6% Cumulative Preferred stock in the company. In exchange for each share of preferred stock so deposited, the stockholder received the following:

(a) A 3% Cumulative Income Debenture, due in the year 2001, in the face amount of one hundred (100) pesos;

(b) An accrual certificate, without specific maturity date, non-interest bearing, in the face amount of 29 pesos; and,

(c) Cash in the net amount of 5,91 pesos after deduction of Cuban taxes.

As of October 1, 1952, the company owed accrued and unpaid dividends on its 6% Cumulative Preferred stock, and the exchange described above was chosen as the method of recapitalization. The time within which to deposit the preferred shares was extended from time to time, the final date for submission being June 15, 1954. As of that date, approximately 255,813 shares had been deposited out of a total of approximately 303,073 shares outstanding.

Consolidated Railroads of Cuba was listed as nationalized by Cuban Law 890, effective October 13, 1960, the date of its publication in the Cuban Official Gazette. The bonds owned by claimant therefore represented a debt of a nationalized enterprise as defined in Section 502(3) of the Act (supra). (See the Claim of Edward R. Smith, FCSC Claim No. CU-5001).

A different question is presented, however, with respect to claimant's accrual certificates in the face amount of 5,800 pesos:

Under the terms of the corporate Recapitalization Plan and of the accrual certificate itself, a new order of priority of payment was created, as to the obligations and preferred stock of the company. First in priority were the debts and other obligations of the company, including bonds. Second were the outstanding shares of preferred stock. Third in order, and on par with each other, were the accrual certificates and the accrued and unpaid dividends on the outstanding preferred stock. The holders of common stock were last in order of priority.

Evidence of record, and other information available to the Commission disclose that the value of the real property, equipment and other assets of the Consolidated Railroads of Cuba exceeded its total obligation on debts, bonds, preferred stock, accrual certificates, and accrued and unpaid preferred stock dividends.

The Commission therefore finds that claimant's accrual certificates also represented a debt of a nationalized enterprise, and concludes that, as a result of the nationalization of the properties of Consolidated Railroads of Cuba, claimant sustained a loss in connection with both certificates and bonds within the meaning of Title V of the Act. (See the Claim of Meyer Lobsenz, FCSC Claim No. CU-1005).

Information available to the Commission establishes that the last payment of interest on the subject debenture was made on April 1, 1959; however, as of that date, the nationalized enterprise owed a total of 14.3% of the face amount of the debenture for prior accumulation of unpaid interest. Claimant therefore, sustained the loss of the face amount of four bonds, the 14.3% prior accumulation of interest, interest on the bonds from April 1, 1959 to October 13, 1960, the date of nationalization, and the face amount of his two accrual certificates.

As to the dollar value of the bonds, the interest, and the accrual certificates, all expressed in pesos, the Commission finds that the peso was valued at par with the dollar on the date of loss.

The Commission further finds that the amount of unpaid indebtedness on claimant's bonds on October 13, 1960, the date of loss, was $23,781.64, including the principal amount of $20,000.00, and interest due, to and including October 13, 1960 in the amount of $3,781.64; additionally, the Commission finds that the value of the two accrual certificates was $5,800.00 on that date. Consequently, claimant's loss was in the amount of $29,581.64.

The Commission has decided that in certification of losses on claims determined pursuant to Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, interest should be included at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement. (See the Claim of Lisle Corporation, FCSC Claim No. CU-0644).

According, the Commission concludes that the amount of loss sustained by claimant shall be increased by interest thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from October 13, 1960, the date of loss, to the date on which provisions are made for settlement thereof.

It will be noted that the total amount of loss found herein is in excess of the amount asserted by claimant. However, in determining the amount of loss sustained, the Commission is not bound by any lesser or greater amounts which may be asserted by claimant as the extent thereof.

CERTIFICATION OF LOSS

The Commission certifies that LOUIS BERRY suffered a loss, as a result of actions of the Government of Cuba, within the scope of Title V of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended, in the amount of Twenty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred Eighty-One Dollars and Sixty-Four Cents ($29,581.64) with interest thereon at 6% per annum from the date of loss to the date of settlement.
